Ellen Babb is the museum operations manager at Heritage Village in Largo, Florida. She was director of the St. Petersburg Museum of History before taking the position of curator of education at Heritage Village in 1988.

Ellen currently oversees operations at Heritage Village and the Gulf Beaches Historical Museum. In recent years, Ellen has managed several countywide research and oral history projects, secured targeted donations for the museum collection and helped to implement the Village's interpretive plan through public programming and exhibit storylines.

She is the author of numerous articles on local women's history, one of which was included in Making Waves: Female Activism in Twentieth Century Florida, edited by Jack E. Davis and Kari Frederickson and published by University Press of Florida in 2003. She has also taught public history for the Eckerd College PEL program.

Ellen is a 2006 Fellow with USF St. Petersburg's Florida Studies program and the recipient of the Pinellas County Alumni Chapter's 2007 Lester Tuttle Distinguished Alumni Award.
