

Faculty Meeting Minutes
August 22, 2013 9:00AM-4:00PM

Dr. Kim Stoddard opened the meeting at 9:00am.

I. Recognition of Guests

Guest: Dr. Sophia Wisniewska, Regional Chancellor

Guest: Dr. Vivian Fueyo, Interim Vice Chancellor of Academic Affairs

Guest: Dr. Julie Wong, Regional Associate Vice Chancellor of Student Affairs

II. Message from the Chancellor

Chancellor Wisniewska reports that the College of Education has raised more in external funding than any other college. She also encourages Strategic Planning and offers support for NCATE Accreditation visit.

III. Message from Interim Vice Chancellor

Dr. Fueyo reports that the College of Education "Service" is marvelous. She requests the tenured faculty to mentor junior faculty and help provide research support.

IV. Message from Associate Regional Vice Chancellor of Student Affairs

Dr. Julie Wong, introduces the Student Affairs team and explains their vision, mission and values. She reports that Student Affairs is here to support students, faculty, and staff.

V. Message from the Dean

Budget:

The College of Education Budget for 2013-2014 academic year is in process. All travel will be approved on a case by case basis.

Searches:

The college has been approved to conduct and fill a full-time faculty position for Math Education and Science Education.

Enrollment:

Enrollment is up on all levels, as well as, at PHCC.

VI. New Assessment System, Dr. Zafer Unal:

Dr. Unal reports and trains faculty on the new in-house assessment system (The Folio) which will track the completion of FEAP and ESOL competencies.

- Introduction to the Folio
- Assessing the Folio
- New Standards of FL DOE

VII. NACTE/CAEP Requirements

Ms. Becky Ogletree reports on the up and coming Fall 2014 visit from NCATE Accreditation. She reports on the standards NCATE will be reviewing and the steps and processes that go along with it.

- Off site review is 5-6 months before visit
- IR Addendum 2-3 months before visit
- Overview of Conceptual Framework and Standards 1-6
- NCATE will ask for 3 years' worth of data

VIII. Common Core update; Dr Anne Marie Gunn and Dr. Charles Vanover

A. Adjunct Modules:

Dr. Gunn reports on the development of the Common Core Modules, which all adjuncts will need to complete and pass. This module will fulfill the requirement from the FL DOE which requires all educators to demonstrate the awareness of the Common Core State Standards. To document your awareness, an orientation course with a mandatory quiz has been developed in Canvas.

B. PARCC:

Dr. Vanover shows slides on FCAT scores and the decrease in school scores. In addition he shows slides on PARCC Assessment design, overview, and advantages.

IX. New Concentration in Communication Sciences and Disorders

Dr. Brice reports on the collaboration with Arts and Science to offer new concentration in the B.S. Health and Science degree program. The concentration will enable students receive their degree and lead to Florida speech-language pathology assistant (SLPA) certification. All course credit and FTE will go to the COE.

X. Update on COE Website

Dr. Duker updates the College of Education on the launch of the new College of Education website which will be the end of October. He reports that the COE website will introduce student bloggers.

XI. Faculty/Senate Update

Dr. Steve Lang, Faculty/ Senate President updates the College of Education on items Faculty/Senate have been working on beginning Summer 2013.

- Budget
- Tenure/Promotion independence from Tampa

XII. Opportunity for Students-CEC

Dr. Kim Stoddard reports to faculty that the Council for Exceptional Children is looking for 5 volunteers for the Annual Conference. The Volunteers will also receive a free registration to the conference. She will be sending out an email to all faculty asking for suggestions of students for this event.

XIII. Update on KDP

KDP officers report that fifty new member were inducted on April 20, 2013. KDP's goal is to have a strong presence on campus and support the College of Education in any way possible. Also, the EEC, Everyone's Education Club is in full effect and welcomes the whole campus to join. Members will become more involved with the USFSP campus, community, and become acquainted with fellow students.

College of Education tentative date for our next College Faculty meeting

Is scheduled for Friday, Jan. 31st tentative timeframe 9-5 pm.

Adjournment:

Dr. Stoddard adjourned the meeting at 4:00PM
Minutes submitted by: Angelica Foley