D. Summer Teaching

Dr. Senokossoff brought up the issue of summer teaching assignments. While all the colleges were asked to limit fulltime faculty to teaching only one course this summer, it appears that neither the College of Business or the College of Arts and Sciences followed this request from Dr. Noonan. A discussion ensued. Dean Fueyo explained how the summer teaching assignments were made in the College of Education and shared plans for following a "revenue generating" model for next summer. The Council asked Dr. Senokossoff as Chair of College

Council to write to Dr. Noonan and express the concerns of the COE faculty. The Council also asked Dr. Reck as Chair of Faculty Senate to take these concerns to the next Senate meeting.
