Dickson and Knudsen Take Top Honors

On hand to present the prestigious awards were Regional Chancellor Karen A. White and President Judy Genshaft. John Dickson and Donna Knudsen were USF St. Petersburg outstanding staff award winners.

There are unsung heroes in every institution who go about their job with little fanfare. Two USF St. Petersburg staff members were honored as university-wide winners of the 2003 Outstanding Staff Award.

Social Responsibility Conference Builds Tradition of Excellence

USF St. Petersburg business professors took their focus on social responsibility to the business and professional community for the first time. Its first Social Responsibility and Corporate Reporting Conference was May 7 at the Don Cesar Hotel and Beach Resort.

Journalism Web site Wins AEJMC Web Competition

Journalism and Media Studies Web site beat all of its peers from departments and schools in the Best of the Web Design Competition from the Association for Education in Journalism and Mass Communication.

The purpose of the competition is to recognize academic work in the design of Web sites intended to advance education or research in journalism and mass communication.

Business Advances Thinking on Organizational Space

A number of business research projects trace their roots to organizational space and symbolism. Leadership, worker-mobility, technology and organizational culture are just a few. A group of academics and researchers will meet at USF St. Petersburg May 25 and 26 from 10:30-noon to discuss research on organizational space and symbolism. These sessions apply to all organizations and the discussion is free and open to the public.

Second Journalism Paper Accepted by AEJMC

This is the second time the Research Methods in Mass Communications class has written a paper presentable to Association for Education in Journalism and Mass Communication.

The paper Uncovering the Quality of Converged Journalism: A Case Study of The Tampa Tribune News Stories has been accepted for presentation for the Newspaper Division of the AEJMC Convention in Toronto this August.

The paper was written fall semester by journalism professor Edgar Huang and graduate students Lisa Rademakers and Moshood A. Fayemiwo in the class.

Bayboro Cafe Get Facelift

Bayboro Cafe reopens Monday May 17 after receiving a well-deserved facelift. The Division of Student Affairs is renovating all physical aspects of the Cafe as part of a three phase renovation project.

Phase One was completed last summer. It replaced all cooking equipment used in the kitchen, including a new stove, convention oven, griddle, fryer and toaster. Phase Two will occur this summer and includes new carpet, paint, tile, signage and artwork. Work begins this month and will conclude in August.

The last work is scheduled for next summer and will replace food cooling units.

Cedric Howard offered special thanks to the Bayboro Cafe Decoration Committee for a beautiful design concept. For updates on the Bayboro Cafe project, please contact him in Student Affairs.

Realism About Brown V. Board Of Education

Former law clerk of U.S. Supreme Court Justice Thurgood Marshall, Randall Kennedy, JD, will present “Realism about Brown v. Board of Education” Friday, May 21 at 6 pm at USF St. Petersburg’s Campus Activities Center.

This event is free and open to the public.

Volunteer at the All Children’s Hospital Telethon, June 5 - 6.

The major fund-raiser for All Children’s Hospital is its telethon which is scheduled for Saturday, June 5 and Sunday, June 6. Volunteers are needed Saturday evening and all day Sunday. Two jobs are available: traffic control (parking) and runner staff (taking pledges to the bookkeepers). Shifts are 2-3 hours and volunteers must be capable of being on their feet throughout the shift. Let’s get a large USFSP presence and help our wonderful neighbors! Contact Barry McDowell at 3-4990 or mcdowell@stpt.usf.edu.
The USF Web Calendar of Events can advertise to campus-wide faculty, staff and to the general public. Events may include lectures, conferences, ceremonies, concerts, sporting events, scholarship events, fundraising events and exhibits.
