ACADEMIC ANNOUNCEMENTS
President Genshaft invites you to the Spring Address April 22: Read the Invitation

I am USF St. Petersburg: Jennifer Baker
If it weren’t for Jennifer Baker, students wouldn’t be able to register for their classes online. Scheduling through USF St. Petersburg OASIS is probably one of the more important parts of Jennifer’s position as Coordinator for Academic Affairs. But that’s not all she does.

March and Leslie E. Cole Chair in Ethics Finalist Presentations Continue
The three finalists for the Marie and Leslie E. Cole Chair in Ethics at USFSP will be on campus over the next two weeks. Each candidate will make two public presentations. In the first, the candidate will discuss his current research in ethics. In the second, he will share his vision for what the Cole Chair can contribute to our campus and to our community.

You are cordially invited to these events, which are free and open to the public:

- Hugh Lafollette (East Tennessee State University)
  Research Seminar: ‘Collateral Consequences of Punishment: Civil Penalties Accompanying Formal Punishment.’ April 19 from 1 to 2:15 p.m. in BAY 220.
  Vision Talk: April 20 from 10 to 11 a.m. in BAY 220

For further information please contact Thomas Smith at 553-4583 or by e-mail at twsmith@stpt.usf.edu

University Police distribute survey
In a continuing effort to provide professional and efficient police services to the University of South Florida St. Petersburg community, the USFSP Police Department is distributing this survey to the faculty, staff and students of our campus. The information provided will be used to enhance our present levels of service and to better identify the community’s needs and expectations for service.
Every effort has been made to assure all A&P employees were covered, however if you know of any individuals in your area who did NOT receive a ballot, please have them contact us at: ecampus@admin.usf.edu

Summer Youth Program

University employees and students looking for a great Summer Youth Adventure for their young adult, ages 11-15 years old please contact Margie Miller at 553-4847.
