Campus Announcements

Due to Hurricane Frances, Academic Convocation has been postponed. The ceremony will be rescheduled for later this semester.

The introductory lecture series, "Avant-Garde," begins Sept. 13 at the Dali Museum and is free and open to the public. Each lecture will help place the work of Salvador Dalí in a broader cultural context and discuss and compare the different avant-garde movements in Europe. For more information, see: Flier.

Greta Scheid-Wells, program assistant for Florida Studies and the Honors Program, is leaving USF St. Petersburg. Please join the campus at a reception Wednesday, Sept. 15, 2 to 3 pm at the Snell House.

Florida Studies is sponsoring a lecture, "Changes in Florida's Rivers Over the Past Century: What the Average Person Doesn't Know," by Joann Mossa, PhD, a University of Florida geographer. The lecture has been rescheduled for Thursday, Sept. 30 at 7:30 pm in DAV130. The event is free and open to the public.

USF Football Season starts next week. The faculty and staff section still has a limited number of season tickets available. For more information, see: Flier.

Campus Staff Prepares Quickly for Hurricane Frances

With the second major hurricane to hit Tampa Bay in less than two weeks, essential USF St. Petersburg staff members worked quickly to prepare for Hurricane Frances. Thanks to their hard work and dedication, our campus was able to successfully implement the Campus Disaster Plan and coordinate all necessary campus procedures.

Campus unsung heroes include:

- Barbara Fleischer, human resources coordinator
- Berrie Watson, network administrator at the Nelson Poynter Memorial Library
- Benny Cheneveret, police chief and the Campus Police Department
- Ron Bugg, physical plant director and Physical Plant staff
- Campus Computing staff
- University Relations staff

Insurance Changes for 2005 Plan Year

There will be major changes in the State Group Insurance Program for the 2005 plan year. The Information of Note (see below) describes the major changes. This will be included in the Open Enrollment package that will be sent to all benefit eligible employees by People First prior to the start of Open Enrollment.

2005 Open Enrollment is Sept. 15, 2004 to Oct. 15, 2004. The USF St. Petersburg Benefits Fair is Wednesday, Oct. 6 in CAC from 9 am to 4 pm.

For more information or if you have additional questions, please call Michele Holton at 553-4105.

Campus Showcase and Volunteer Fair

Last week's Campus Showcase on the Harborside Lawn gave hundreds of USF St. Petersburg students the opportunity to learn about student organizations and academic departments as well as campus programs and services. Participating organizations included Student Government, Criminology Student Association, Crow's Nest, Law Society and the USF Pinellas County Alumni Association.

"This was a great event because all of the clubs and organizations had the chance to get their name out," said Tom Piccolo, student government president. "Hopefully this event will increase club activity and memberships."

The Volunteer Fair also provided students, faculty and staff opportunities to get involved in the community. Participating organizations included: National Conference of Community and Justice, Habitat for Humanity, Hospice and the Academy Prep School. If you are interested in volunteering, contact Barry McDowell at 553-4990 or mcdowell@stpt.usf.edu.

Students can get admission information, financial aid and scholarship information and academic program information. Students may also visit with admission counselors, financial aid representatives, and academic advisors. Tours of campus will also be available.

If you would like to reserve a table for your college, department or program, contact John Vassel, director of prospective student outreach at 553-4002 or vassel@stpt.usf.edu.

Town & Gown's First Event of the Year

Town & Gown's first event of the year, "Musical Conversations," is a musical extravaganza featuring a performance by Dr. Karen A. White, USF St. Petersburg regional chancellor, Wednesday, Sept. 29 at 7:30 pm.

The event, free and open to the public, will be held at the Palladium Theatre located at 253 5th Ave. North and will also feature Kay Lowe on soprano and James Johnson on piano. Town & Gown was established in 1999 to promote understanding and friendship between the university and the community.

The executive board of Town & Gown are extremely enthusiastic to host Dr. White's recital and we are privileged to be honored by this presentation, said Judy Altenhoff, Town & Gown president.

If you are interested in volunteering for this event, please contact Judy Altenhoff at Norm1040@aol.com or Sudsy Tschiderer, USF St. Petersburg special events coordinator, at tschider@stpt.usf.edu.

Upcoming Colloquium Honors Dr. David Stenmark

To honor his contributions to the field of psychology and to the community, the Psychological Science Program presents, "The Scholar-Practitioner: A Tribute to the Career of David Stenmark," a memorial colloquium Thursday, Sept. 30 at 4 pm in DAV130. The colloquium is the first of the psychology department's 2004-05 colloquium series and will include presentations by former students and colleagues.

Stenmark was a professor of psychology at USF from 1974 to 2003. He served as director of the doctoral program in Clinical/Community Psychology at USF Tampa, was a Fellow in the American Psychological Association and recipient of USF's 1987-1988 Outstanding Teacher Award.

For more information on this and future colloquia, please visit the Psychological Science Program Web site at www.stpt.usf.edu/coas/psychology/index.htm.

I Am USF St. Petersburg: Monica White

As the first coordinator for USF St. Petersburg's new Office of Multicultural Affairs, Monica White relocated from the chills of snowy Buffalo to the sun of tropical Florida. While the landscape may be new for White, she's come to Florida with a lot of experience in multicultural affairs and higher education.

A Buffalo native, White previously served as director for multicultural affairs at SUNY at Fredonia for four years. She earned her bachelor's in Health Care Administration at SUNY at Fredonia and her master's in College Personnel Administration from Buffalo State College. She also was involved with Life Long Learning/Continuing Education, International Education/Studies Abroad and in Health Education at SUNY at Fredonia. All of these attributes made White the idea choice to lead USF St. Petersburg's new program.
