Minutes of Meeting of June 8, 1950

Meeting was called to order at 10 a.m. by Chairman Holland, with the following members present: Mrs. Mailande Holland, Mrs. Marguerite Bartlett, Mr. Floyd Christian, Mr. Henry Belcher, Judge Alfred P. Marshall as Board Members and Dr. Herbert D. Williams as Director of the Juvenile Welfare Board.

Minutes of the meeting of May 25, 1950 were read and approved.

Expenditures set forth in Checks #1629 to 1651 inclusive of the above account and checks #31 to 35 inclusive of the In-School Counselling Account were presented and upon motion of Mr. Belcher, seconded by Mrs. Holland and carried, the same were approved.

Dr. Williams presented the need for one typewriter for the Juvenile Welfare Board and an electric fan for the In-School Counselling Project. Upon motion of Mr. Christian, seconded by Mr. Belcher and carried, Dr. Williams was authorized to purchase the typewriter and electric fan.

Dr. Williams presented a request for additional money to be paid to Betty Jo Fordham. After a thorough discussion, it was found that she did need this additional money and upon motion of Mr. Belcher, seconded by Mr. Christian and carried, the Board agreed to pay $2.00 a week additional for the support of Betty Jo Fordham.

Dr. Williams reported on meetings regarding unmarried negro mother, adoption procedures and hearings before the Budget Commission.

It was suggested that for the benefit of the entire program Dr. Williams, Dr. Voorhis, Mrs. Dame and Judge Marshall make a trip sometime in the near future to the Girls' Industrial School at Ocala in order to be more familiar with the same. Upon motion of Mr. Christian, seconded by Mr. Belcher and carried, the Board authorized the four above named people to make the trip therein set forth at the expense of the Juvenile Welfare Board.

It was agreed that the next regular meeting would be held on June 21, 1950 and that there be only one meeting in July, same to be held July 31, 1950.

There being no further business to come before the meeting, same was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

Alfred P. Marshall
