Loretta Lovely ON CAMPUS

- That famous St. Pete campus lover, M.B., is having trouble with his women. He must arrange his schedule so they won't all show up at the same time.
- What male student activities employee came to school in air-conditioned pants? (He doesn't wear underwear.)
- Hear that Lila has been spending a lot of time keeping company with the fish.
- Tune in any day, any time to "Return of Peyton Place" in the Student Activities Office. Tony Saris does. (What big ears you have!)
- Georgianne is getting so thin! Loretta & her comrades are jealous!
- The Psych Club won a lot of friends (and at least a few new members) at their fried chicken bash. They refused to be rained out. . . once again.
- Ask Donna about the performing seals in the bar she frequents (or would like to).
- Happy birthday to Bruno, the member of the feinstein family who gets the most attention.
- Goodbye & good luck Marleen. We're going to miss you!
- Mr. Haney is gone but not forgotten. Now on the Tampa campus, we're sure he'll never forget Adelaide's salad, Fran's dip, Mrs. Wedge's pie ... or David's peculiar card.
- The snack bar has a few new items-egg sandwiches & BEER! A delight breakfast combination.
- Welcome back, Sandy, of DNR!

JOHN DUNNE REMAINS IN OUR HEARTS

John Dunne certainly was a remarkable character. He has been a great many things in the past—a boxer, a doctor of chiropractic science, a government official. At South Florida he was a student. More than that he was a man of strong ideals and character, who spoke and fought for his cherished beliefs. He was always ready to help or anyone else in distress or difficulty. He cared very much for others—as many students can affirm, and always took an interest in a new student.

John could always contribute some story or experience from his past to our current discussion. He used to relate to me how surprised he was upon discovering the friendliness and integrity of today's young people. He has so often heard and read the opposite. He concluded that the new generation was superior to his own and provided hope for the future.

John was a devout Christian man and availed himself of every opportunity to act as an apostle. I have been enriched by him and am proud to have known him as a student and friend. John Dunne remains in our hearts.

Regis Factor

GALLAHER--Sure enjoyed the fantastic seafood and beer at your pre-birthday party at the Sunrise. It's a shame you weren't there... (in a manner of speaking). THANKS! How 'bout another on the 27th?
