Gov. Askew to Help Mark Ceremonies For $26 Million Complex Begun in '72

USF to Dedicate Medical Center Next Friday

Formal dedication of the USF Medical Center will be held at 2 p.m. May 21 in the Medical Center Auditorium and will feature Gov. Reubin Askew as the speaker.

The ceremony marks completion of the $26 million Center which serves medical education and community needs for Central Florida.

Special invitations to the dedication have been extended to members of the medical and university community, state and community leaders, legislative representatives, Board of Regents members and others instrumental in the founding and establishment of the Medical Center.

President Mackey will preside at the dedication ceremonies. Others on the program along with Gov. Askew are Ralph Turlington, commissioner of education; Marshall Criser, chairman of the Board of Regents; Dr. Donn Smith, dean of the College of Medicine and director of the Medical Center, and The Rev. Walter N. Kalaff of Palma Ceia Methodist Church who will give the invocation and benediction.

The Medical Center contains modern, fully equipped educational and research facilities constructed to accommodate an entering class of 96 students. Included is space for the College of Medicine, College of Nursing, graduate students in the medical sciences at the Ph.D. level, a medical library and an Ambulatory Care Center built to handle about 100,000 patient visits annually.

The Center features a glass, brick and concrete exterior and was designed by Connell, Pierce, Garland and Friedman, architects, engineers and planners of Miami. Phase I, begun in April 1972, was completed in December 1973 by Isaac Fryd Construction Corp. of Miami Beach. It includes classrooms, laboratories, a cafeteria and the medical library in its 189,465 square feet. The $10 million cost included $7.5 million in federal funds to match state funds.

Phase II was supported entirely by $16 million in state funds. Its 276,121 square feet includes a clinical science building, the Ambulatory Care Center, the College of Nursing, administrative quarters and an auditorium. Frank J. Rooney, Inc. of Fort Lauderdale began construction on Phase II in October 1973 and completed it in January of this year.

Regents Approve 'in Principle' of USF Construction Plan

The Board of Regents Monday approved "in principle" the concept of President Cecil Mackey to begin planning for three student-related buildings at USF - a University Events Center, Bookstore and Performing Arts Auditorium. The Board also supported the concept of multiple sources of funding (student building fees, education bonds and/or non-state sources) for buildings which might serve both the campus and the community.

The USF proposal calls for:
- Planning for a 9,000 to 12,000-seat University Events Center expected to cost $7.5 million to $8 million.
- Planning for a 40,000-square-foot Bookstore at an estimated cost of $1.8 million.
- Planning for a Performing Arts Auditorium for 2,000 to 2,500 persons at an estimated cost of $3.8 million.

Under President Mackey's proposal, the events center and bookstore would be financed by current student building fees. The Performing Arts Auditorium would be financed by projected student building fees, education bonds and possible sources other than state funds.

In its approval of the concept, the BOR deleted a recommendation by the Facilities Committee that all three proposed facilities be located on the Tampa campus. Regent Chester Ferguson recommended the location question be left open until USF officials have reviewed possible cooperative efforts with the Tampa community regarding the Fine Arts Facility.

Among other actions, the BOR also approved:
- A rule to contract programs and facilities.*
- Guidelines for the establishment of cooperative graduate degree programs.*

The BOR postponed action on proposed guidelines for minimum class size for regular courses pending a review by the Faculty Senate Council and the Council of Presidents. The Board also delayed action on a recommendation for reducing teacher education enrollment at the entering junior class level pending the same review. Both proposals are expected to be brought back to the board at its June 7 meeting in Orlando.
