Pre-Med Students Receive Cancer Society Fellowships

The American Cancer Society, Florida Division, has awarded R.G. Thompson Summer Research Fellowships to the USF College of Medicine to five premedical students who will be working on cancer-related studies. The fellowships are made possible by a $5,400 American Cancer Society grant to the College of Medicine and provide 12-week stipends of $900 to each of the students. Recipients of the projects and professors they are working with are:

Ms. Diane M. Gifford who will work with Dr. Robert Grasso on the project entitled "Isolation and Characterization of BCNU in Rat Glioma (Strain C6) Monolayer Cultures."

Allen Richards who will work with Dr. Gerald Lancz on the project entitled "Modulation of Herpes Simplex Virus Replication by Cultural Conditions."

Jeffrey K. Carlson who will work with Dr. Alvin Winters on the project entitled "Isolation and Characterization of Mouse Adeno Virus Plaque Types."

Peter Di Roma who will work with Dr. Joseph G. Cory on the project entitled "Investigation to the Role of Nucleoside Phosphorylase(s) in the Inactivation of Nucleoside Analog Antitumor Agents."

George C. Kalemeris who will work with Dr. Larry P. Solomonson on the project entitled "A Possible Role for (Na+ + K+)-ATPase in the Transport of Nucleosides in Novikoff Hepatoma Cells."

Dorothy Roberts (Eng.) has won the Newman Memorial Award for 1976, a prize of $500 for her paper, "The Rhythm of Action in the Faerie Queene."
Harry J. Schaleman (gpy., St. Pete Campus), delivered the Commencement Speech at the USF, St. Pete Graduation Celebration, Sunset County Club, St. Petersburg, June 11.
