MUSE VISUAL ARTS AWARD
– CARRIE JADUS

This award recognizes an artist or organization that has achieved excellence in the visual arts which include ceramics, drawing, painting, sculpture, glass-blowing, printmaking, design, crafts, photography, video, filmmaking and media arts.

An electrical engineer-turned-fine artist, Carrie’s work is exhibited in galleries and private collections all over the world. From the second floor of Softwater Studios in the Warehouse Arts District, she puts brush to canvas to produce works ranging from stunning commissioned portraits to imaginative posters for Movies in the Park. And, her painting of sculptor Mark Aeling’s hands was our inspiration for this year’s MUSE...
