

CALL FOR PUBLIC ART ON TAMPA'S RIVERWALK – DEADLINE JUNE 5

Call to Artists: A Request for Qualifications

Project Budgets of $100,000 and $200,000

Application Deadline (postmarked or hand-delivered) Friday,
June 5, 2015

The City of Tampa Florida is seeking two public art projects for the final segment of the Tampa Riverwalk located in downtown Tampa.

There are two significant sites designated for Public Art within this section of the Tampa Riverwalk, both are directly adjacent to the Hillsborough River. Site 1 is under the Laurel Street Bridge; Site 2 is under Interstate I-275. Both sites work within and incorporate some existing infrastructure.

A wide variety of user groups traverse these spaces including, but not limited to students, residents, visitors, office workers, fitness seekers of all abilities such as walkers, runners, cyclists, etc. There is also significant water traffic including team rowing and recreational boating. The area is diverse in every way.

MORE INFO: <http://www.tampagov.net/art-programs/Info/call-to-artists>

APRIL 26, 2015 SHEILA COWLEY NO COMMENTS

POST TAGS: CALL TO ARTISTS, PUBLIC ART, SCULPTURE,

POSTED IN: CALLS TO ARTISTS , OPPORTUNITIES ,

AUTHOR

Sheila Cowley

ALL STORIES BY: SHEILA COWLEY

