He reported that Mrs. Eda LeShan, a staff writer for Redbook magazine, was coming to St. Petersburg on February 7th to interview members of the staff in regard to the paper prepared for the meeting of the American Orthopsychiatric Association in March 1965. Dr. Finck stated that he had corrected the proofs for the article "Conflicts in Marriage Following Premarital Pregnancy" and that it would be published in the American Journal of Orthopsychiatry in April 1966.

MOTION
Approval of Salary Checks for February

Mrs. Harrison moved, and Mr. Bauder seconded a motion which carried, to approve the salary checks for February, 1966, on the condition of completion of satisfactory service.

Mrs. Harrison agreed to serve as the Juvenile Welfare Board representative on the Child Guidance Clinic Board of Directors for the term beginning February 1966.

Mr. Theodore Hanscom of the State Department of Public Welfare explained the program of protective services begun in January 1965 by the Child Welfare Division. His report indicated the activities of this division, the sources of referrals, the disposition of cases, and the widespread needs for the Protective Service. He pointed out how this service was resulting in a decrease in the number of children in foster care. Mr. C. G. Griffin, Child Welfare Supervisor, explained the program of foster care and the other child welfare services. He submitted a request for the use of foster care funds already allocated for the residential treatment of Frank Inguaggioto. The Board discussed this request at some length and felt that exploration should be made to find a way in which funds might be made available for this request of $300.00 a month for treatment at the Montanari School.

MOTION
Postponement of Decision on Residential Treatment

Mrs. Harrison moved, and Mr. Bauder seconded a motion which carried, to delay action on the request of the Child Welfare Division for funds for Frank Inguaggioto.

The Activities Reports for the month of January were presented to the Board.

Since there was no further business, the meeting was adjourned. The next regular meeting of the Juvenile Welfare Board will be Thursday, March 3rd, in the County Office Building, Clearwater.
