Theatre Dept. To Welcome High School Thespians

The USF theatre department will play host to the Florida High School Thespian Conference March 24-26 on the Tampa campus. This annual event seeks to display, sharpen and expand the skills of the state's youthful actors and theatrical technicians through a series of workshops, competitions and performances.

International renowned voice teacher, Kristin Linklater, will be guest speaker at the conclusion of the conference, an awards banquet at the Egypt Temple Shrine. At that time, the Elaine and Mandell Shimberg Scholarships, dual grants of $900 each, will be awarded to seniors and prospective USF freshmen, who plan to enter the department of theatre. They will be chosen from among the conference competitors.

Some 800 representatives from 60 high schools throughout the state (public, private and parochial included) are expected to register at the Theatre Center March 24, according to Thespian Conference Chairperson Scott Dougherty, drama teacher at Tampa's Chamberlain High School.

March 24 and 25, a "One-Acts" competition will be held in the auditorium of Chamberlain High School at 7:30 p.m. Nine one-act plays will be performed by winners of previous district competitions. These and other events of the conference are open to the public on a space-available basis.

On March 26 a cluster of contests in the following facets of drama will be held throughout the day on campus: monologues, duet acting, duet improvisations, group improvisations, pantomime, scene design and costume design. The costume and scene design submissions will be displayed on the second floor of the Theatre Center.

A formal exhibition of the scene and costume designs by the Florida Center for the Arts staff and theatre department designers will be mounted in the Theatre Lobby Gallery as part of the Galleries exhibit series, and will run through April 5.

Judging the competitions will be individual panels of experts, including Paul Massie, Bill Lorenzo, Jack Belt, Peter O'Sullivan and Dale Rose of the USF theatre department; Tom McClusky of the Showboat Dinner Theatre; Rush Dudley and Robert Jurgens of Rollins; State Rep. Helen Gordon Davis; Ken Lawson of Florida Technological University, Louise Kotler and Robert Goldberg of Once Upon A Stage in Orlando.

Tampa Historian To Be Lunch Guest

"Tampa's Latin Heritage" with an emphasis on the contributions of Ybor City will be presented by well-known local historian Tony Pizzo on March 23 at noon in the University Center Ballroom.

The luncheon, another in the continuing USF-Community Dialogue series, will cost $3.

It is open to the public and reservations may be made with Edna Brewer at ext. 2651 or Ernie Thomas at 879-3300.

Pizzo, a graduate of Stetson University, is charter president of the Tampa Historical Society and author of "Tampa Town," as well as numerous other articles and biographies.

He was selected for the 1976 Outstanding Citizen Award by the Latin American Fiesta Association and 20 years before he received the Civitan Award for Tampa's Outstanding Citizen.

An exhibit on Tampa's history, created by the Exchange National Bank, will be on display at the luncheon.

The USF-Community Dialogue programs were initiated to increase interaction between USF and the Greater Tampa community. Speakers alternate monthly between those from the University and those from the Greater Tampa area.

Robin Roberts, USF's head baseball coach and Hall of Fame member, is scheduled to speak in downtown Tampa April 27. The time and place will be announced at a later date.

Legislative Hot-Line Open To Public

A toll-free legislative information phone number, 1-800-342-1827, will be available for public use from March 28 through June 17 to provide information and answer questions concerning the status of any legislation being considered in Tallahassee. Cancer Fund Raising Set For April

USF's Common Learning Network is sponsoring a fund-raising benefit concert to aid the Tampa Chapter of the American Cancer Society on April 12, beginning at 2 p.m. at the USF Riverfront Park on Fletcher Ave. Admission will be $1 with all proceeds going to the Cancer Society.

Donations of food, beverages or other merchandise or services are needed and arrangements can be made to have the items picked up. Further information is available from the Common Learning Network at ext. 2408.

Library Receives Valuable Books

USF's Special Collections department recently received a gift of over 2,000 books, including a first American edition of Lewis Carroll's "Alice in Wonderland."

Special Collections representative Jay Dobkin said the gift of Mrs. Natalie Hibbs was a "fine scholarly library" of English and American literature and literary criticism worth an estimated $20,000. "There are some real varieties in the collection," Dobkin said, adding USF will find the criticism especially of "great scholarly use."

In the USF Theatre on March 24 and 25, at 8 p.m. running concurrently with the "One-Acts" competition, the USF theatre department will present "Rosencrantz and Guildenstern Are Dead," a contemporary reconstruction of the Shakespearean classic, "Hamlet." This production was recently performed at USF and is directed by Paul Massie.

On the final day of the conference, March 26, a series of workshops will examine the finer points of pantomime, puppetry, children's theatre, voice preparation, problems of musical theatre, lighting, painting and the actor's use of costume. Presenting the workshops, among others, will be Bonnie McCluskey of the Enchanted Family Mine Troupe, Judith Kase, children's theatre director and member of the USF education faculty, Gerry Leahy, designer for the Florida Center for the Arts, and Bambi Stoll, costume designer for the USF theatre department.

The awards banquet at the Egypt Temple Shrine on March 26 concludes the three-day conference, at which time the winners of the individual competitions and the two scholarship winners will be announced.

Ms. Linklater, guest speaker of the evening, will discuss "Voice and Its Relationship to the Actor's Craft."
