Homecoming Kicks Off USF 20th Anniversary

USF will begin its 20th anniversary and bicentennial celebrations Jan. 13-20 during "Homecoming: Spirit of '76," a week of community activities including a "Night of Nostalgia," parade, birthday party, basketball, open houses, lectures and alumni events which are open to the community.

All events, except a few where indicated, will be on the campus and will be open free to the public.

USF will host a "Night of Nostalgia" to kick off the 20th anniversary celebration at 8 p.m. Jan. 13 in the Gyn. Rep. Sam Gibbons, often called "the father" of USF, will be joined on the program by others who are important in the University's history--Gov. Leroy Collins and former USF presidents John Allen and Harris Dean. They will talk briefly about the history and future of USF. The 132 charter faculty and staff and the 1,997 charter students are especially invited and will be guests at a reception to follow in CTR 248.

The 20th anniversary will also be celebrated Jan. 16 at a birthday party, parade and pep rally. The parade will feature "floats" made from decorated Volkswagons and other small cars, electric and antique cars, and contestants in the mock Homecoming king and queen--"Beauty and the Beast" contest. The parade will assemble at the USF Credit Union parking lot at noon and begin at 1 p.m. It will tour the area east of the University along 131st, 15th and 30th Streets and Fowler Ave. before returning to campus at about 2 p.m. Cake and ice cream will be served on the UC Hall at a birthday party beginning at 2 p.m.

Other highlights of the week will include open house events in campus buildings and colleges; the University Follies, two nights of entertainment featuring USF faculty, staff and administrators in a spoof on higher education; USF Golden Brahmins men's and women's basketball, including a game against FSU; alumni events; the USF Lacrosse Club vs. the University of Florida and a major lecture by Helen Thomas, UPI White House bureau chief.

An up-dated schedule of Homecoming events is on Page 3 of this week's INTERCOM.

SUS Report to the People Comes to Ft. Myers, Sarasota

USF will once again host two "Report to the People" programs next week for residents of Fort Myers and Sarasota.

USF President Cecil Mackey, along with the presidents of the nine State universities, will be in Fort Myers Jan. 12 and will be joined by Chancellor E.T. York in Sarasota Jan. 13.

The first meeting will be held at the Sheraton Inn, 8900 S. Tamiami Trail (U.S. 41 Rt. S) and the second at the USF Sarasota Campus in the Music Room of College Hall. Both meetings begin at 7:30 p.m.

USF hosted the first two RTP programs in Tampa and St. Petersburg Nov. 17 and 18 respectively.

WUSF-TV Expands to Morning Programming

"The best of PBS, morning, noon and night"--that's how Channel 16 WUSF-TV is heralding its programming expansion into the morning hours. Beginning each weekday at 10 a.m., Channel 16 will bring public television to daytime TV viewers starting Monday, Jan. 19.

"Offering public TV in the mornings is part of our alternative programming philosophy," said John Hershberger, WUSF-TV station manager. "We are trying to reach a new daytime audience for PBS: women, the elderly and the home-for-lunch workers."

"Upstairs, Downstairs" begins its third year with 13 new episodes on Masterpiece Theatre. Channel 16 will air it Mondays at 10 a.m.

A new 13-week series, "The Adams Chronicles, 1750-1900," Wednesdays at 1 p.m., will dramatize America's bicentennial history through the lives of four generations of the Adams family. This series is PBS's largest and most original dramatic production to date. Another dramatic series is the long-running "Hollywood Television Theatre" Fridays at 12:30 p.m., which moves from serious plays to brilliant comedies in presenting the best works of contemporary playwrights.

Channel 16 has two programs for the issue-oriented woman. The thought-provoking "Woman" and "Woman Alive!" air Wednesdays at 10:30 and 11 a.m. respectively.

New from PBS are two practical advice shows, "Erica," Mondays at 11 a.m. and "What's Cooking?," Thursdays at 10:30 a.m. The first lady of needlework, Erica Wilson, gives imaginative and artistic demonstrations of her craft on "Erica," while the entertaining LaDeva Davis shows how to eat well and save money with recession cooking recipes. These two new programs join PBS's money-saving "Consumer Survival Kit," Wednesdays at 12:30 p.m. and WUSF-TV's "Coping with the Economy," Thursdays at noon.

For the retired or about to retire, Channel 16 has set aside Thursday evenings from 7 to 9 p.m. for three shows. WUSF-TV's "Prime Time" features local personality profiles, personal protection and health information segments. "Ready or Not" follows with a comprehensive retirement planning series including finances, housing, employment and leisure topics. "Images of Aging" is an examination of attitudes on aging as seen through the eyes of filmmakers, documentarians and dramatists.

Two of these shows will also be scheduled during the day--"Ready or Not," Wednesdays at noon and "Images of Aging," Thursdays at 1 p.m.
