THE ORGANIZER, an Italian film will be presented on April 21 and 22 on the St. Petersburg Campus as part of the Student Association's Film Classic Series. Despite the fact that the story sounds dismal (a strike at a textile factory in Turin at the end of the 19th century brings a seedy intellectual to the foreground as its spokesman in getting better working conditions), it is actually a film based on a hopeful concept and is probably Mastroianni's greatest character role. THE ORGANIZER has won numerous awards for excellence including an Academy Award nomination for Best Screenplay, Grand Prize winner and International Catholic Film Office Award at the Buenos Aires Film Festival, one of the 5 Best Foreign Films of the Year, National Board of Review award winner, Best Actor of the Year (Marcello Mastroianni), Independent Film Importers and Distributors of America Award winner.

"A stirring and stinging social document --and one of the best movies of this and many a year." --New York HERALD TRIBUNE

We are looking for a new image. Instead of going under the temporarily acquired nomenclature of The BULLETIN, we would like a new name and thought you would agree.

So, for the past fortnight, we've conjured imaginative mastheads.

We've created such distinctive gems as:
Harbor Herald
Bayboro Bore
Morning Morning-Star
St. Pete Pitter-Patter
Sgagull Sentinel

But, none of these seem to have a dynamic impact. And ORACLE, JR. is out of the question.

Can you help?
Please submit any and all suggestions to USFSP Bulletin personnel in the Student Activities Office located in Building B, just off of the Student Lounge.

BELLS~

(Ed. Note: The following is a poem by Mr. Caesar Rivera, an instructor at St. Petersburg Junior College, Clearwater Campus. It serves to remind us of something we may or may not miss at USFSP.)

Hear the screaming schoolhouse bells--
Horrid bells!
What a frightful tale of terror in their dreadful decibels!
In the quiet halls of learning
How they psal out their loud yearning!
Too much horrified to speak,
They just shriek, shriek, shriek,
Out of tune,
In a murderous appealing: To class! To class! To class! To class!
In a mad expostulation to the frantic lad and lass,
Screaming louder, louder, louder,
With their electronic power,
In a desperate endeavor
To destroy our cochlear drum,
And in less than sixty seconds leave us numb.
