USF beats WELLESLEY in

Sunday, USF's College Bowl team downed Wellesley College's foursome. This was the latter's fifth appearance on the TV program, their last as USF now holds the championship. Next Sunday, the team of Barbara Litte, Chester McFallen III, James Stockeard and Thomas Swihart will defend their title against challengers from David and Elkins College in West Virginia. Dr. Steve Rubins coaches USF's team.

Ex Libris

Things are looking up.

If you've finally gotten to see the pool table back of the bookstore, come in and see the new gadget bar in the library. There are two reasons for the bright shiny chains on the gadgets: The gadgets are to be used THERE (in close proximity to the waste basket) and they are for all students and staff members.

And then, to keep you from getting so engrossed in playing with the gadgets that you might miss your next class, we've installed a teacher clock. This one is in the study area, UP over the current periodical shelving.

That's why things (and people) are looking up.

If any of you tried to use the library on April 30th and were driven out by the confusion of people, books, boxes, papers, cards, and noise, we're very sorry. But the results of that day of disorder, chaos, disarray, jumble, and clutter (Webster's New Dictionary of Synonyms) are now ready for you to use.

MORE BOOKS * * * Over 700 were, in fact.

We have a smattering of titles on the Recent Acquisitions Rack, and many more are filed in their correct places on the regular shelves.

The library cards are being filed in the card catalog as fast as possible, but if you can't find a title, please ask one of the librarians to help you.

This windfall is a collection recommended by the journal, CHOICE, which was purchased in toto by the Acquisitions Department of the University Library for the St. Petersburg Campus. The extra people spreading the confusion around on that Wednesday were five staff members from the Tampa Campus Library, unpacking, sorting, and checking the books. We of the St. Petersburg Campus are most grateful to them for setting aside their duties in Tampa to spend one whole day helping us over here.
