2003 Cooperman-Bogue Awards

Long after regular work hours, at a kitchen table not an office desk, the late Leonard Cooperman and Lincoln Bogue drafted legislation in 1945 that forever changed the quality of life for Pinellas County's children and families. The legislation set into motion the unique taxing authority known as the Juvenile Welfare Board.

In honor of these two men the Juvenile Welfare Board announces the 2003 Cooperman - Bogue Awards.

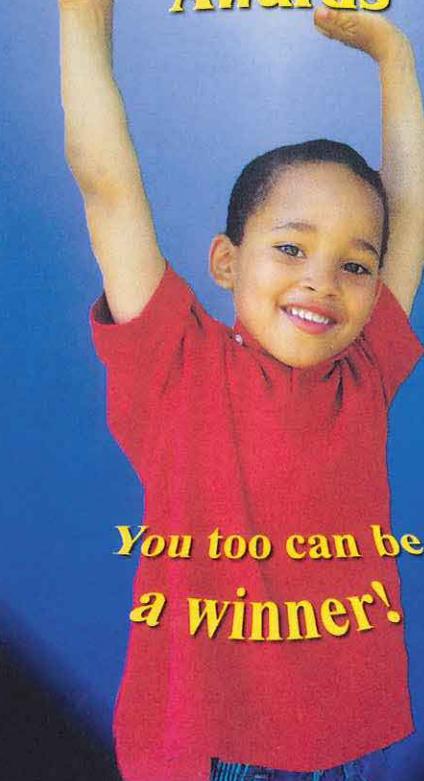

Nominations will be accepted through 12/15/2003, and must meet the guidelines as outlined in this brochure. Each quarter, one outstanding worker will be selected to be honored at his or her workplace and will receive $250 cash and special prizes. A letter of commendation will be sent to the supervisor of the nominator of each quarterly winner. Quarterly winners will have their photos displayed at the Juvenile Welfare Board. They also will be honored at an annual dinner, when one will be named recipient of the Cooperman-Bogue Award for the year and receive a $1,000.

Sponsors:

The 2003 Cooperman-Bogue Awards are sponsored by the Juvenile Welfare Board of Pinellas County, and AEGON.

Criteria for Selection

1. Nominee consistently performs above and beyond job description and requirements to serve the children and families of Pinellas. (Nominee willingly takes on the extra load, extends a third and fourth helping hand and goes the extra mile.)
2. Nominee exemplifies the belief that the human element makes a difference in the lives of others, and recognizes that the human touch must be extended far beyond the confines of a standard workday, in a neat office, in a convenient, but routine manner.
3. Nominee is an inspiration to other workers.
4. Nominee's efforts have helped to promote the social betterment and general improvement in the well-being of a group or individual.
5. Nominee is an employee (not a manager or executive director) of a Pinellas County employer. The nominee's primary duties are to provide direct service to children and families. The following is a list of eligible employer/employee categories:
 - Child care center or family day care home (not-for-profit or for-profit)
 - Public or not-for-profit agency
 - Public or private school employee, who is not a classroom teacher, such as a social worker or counselor

The nominee is not an employee or family member of the Juvenile Welfare Board Administration or any sponsoring organization.
